

ILLINOIS 6 - HOME OWNERS TAX EXEMPTIONS

1. The Homeowner Exemption: Provides tax relief by reducing the equalized assessed valuation of an eligible residence. You can receive the Homeowner Exemption if you own or have a lease or contract which makes you responsible for the real estate taxes of the residential property. It must also be used as your principal place of residence for the year in question.

2. The Senior Citizen Exemption: Provides tax relief by further reducing the equalized valuation of an eligible residence. This savings is in the form of a deduction on the second-installment real estate tax bill.

State law requires that senior citizens reapply annually for the Senior Exemption.

 Must be 65 or older – Own the property or responsible for the real estate taxes & must be your principal residence.

3) The Senior Freeze Exemption: Allows qualified senior citizens to apply for a freeze of the equalized assessed value (EAV) of their properties for the year preceding the year in which they first apply and qualify for this exemption.

- been born prior to or in the year 1951,
- a total household income of $55,000 or less for income tax year 2015,
- owned the property or had a legal, equitable or leasehold interest in the property on January 1, 2015 and January 1, 2016,
- used the property as a principal place of residence as of January 1, 2015 and January 1, 2016, and
- been liable for the payment of 2015 and 2016 property taxes.

4) The Home Improvement Exemption: Allows you to increase the value of your home with up to $75,000 worth of improvements without increasing your property taxes for at least four years. You will automatically receive the exemption when our office field checks the building permit for the improvement. To learn whether you may qualify for the Home Improvement Exemption, call your County Assessor's Office.

- A non-remarried surviving spouse of a disabled veteran may continue to receive this exemption if the same primary residence continues as such for the surviving spouse. Or, the non-remarried surviving spouse may transfer the exemption amount (or less) to a new primary residence.

6) Disabled Persons Exemptions- This exemption provides disabled persons with an annual $2,000 reduction in the equalized assessed value (EAV) of the property.

- be disabled or become disabled during the Tax year,
- own or have a legal or equitable interest in the property, or a leasehold interest in a single-family residence,
- occupy the property as the principal residence on January 1st of the tax year in question, and
- be liable for the payment of property taxes.

If a person's home previously received the Disabled Persons' Exemption and the taxpayer now resides in a facility licensed under the Nursing Home Care Act, his or her home is still eligible to receive this exemption provided:

- the property is occupied by the spouse, and
- the property remains unoccupied.

Spouse can claim this exemption if Disabled Spouse has passed away and they never claimed when the Disabled Spouse was alive.
